

What a relief to not have to share my limited time putting off or hanging up after being interrupted for something I did not ask for. I am entitled to decide whom to talk to, and should not be subjected to callers I have no business with. Please let our Telephone Consumer Protection Act stand as it is.